

Communication

Associate in Arts Degree

Why Communication?

Communication is a field that involves sending and receiving messages and improving relationships.

Why Bay College?

The Communication program at Bay College helps students develop life skills and succeed professionally. Bay College offers many courses in the communication area. These courses can enhance students' communication skills, which can benefit them in both academia and in their workplace. Its courses are designed to transfer to other colleges. While at Bay College, students can earn an associate's degree with a concentration in communication.
